COURSE COMMENCES: Autumn Term - 28th September 2010

Entry Qualifications - No previous knowledge of Spanish is necessary.

Aims of the course - To have fun learning Spanish!

To develop the speaking and reading skills at basic level to enable sufficient communication for survival in Spain.

Course content

The tutor is a native Spanish speaker who has several years experience teaching adults.

A variety of teaching methods will be used to suit all students' learning needs. Individual, pair and group work, role plays and dialogues will be used to help students to achieve their speaking skills.

Homework is set and marked each week. Self-assessment tests take place at the end of every unit covered. You will be assessed on speaking and reading skills during the course. Successful completion of the course will result in a nationally recognised Award in Language Skills from the National Open College Network.

Please do not buy text books prior to the first lesson.
